

TRI-STATE CLASSICS

56 Woodstock Acres Open Hunter Pleasure Classic: Open to all exhibitors riding hunt seat, except Walk-Trot riders. Open to horses and ponies. Exhibitors will be asked to walk, trot, and canter both directions of the ring. Extension may be asked for at the judge's discretion. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

81 Prospect Hill Farm Open Pleasure Classic: A walk-trot-canter class open to all exhibitors in all disciplines, except Walk-Trot riders. Open to horses and ponies. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

82 Windy Ridge Walk-Trot Open Pleasure Classic: A walk-trot only classic open to horses or ponies and riders of any age, who have never competed in any class at any show requiring a canter. Green horses are not eligible to be ridden in this classic. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

83 Rocky Meadow Farm Non-Pro Team Open Pleasure Classic: This is a canter/lope classic open to all NON PROFESSIONAL exhibitors of any age in all disciplines. This is a two-rider class. One rider will ride the first way of the ring while the second rider remains in the middle of the ring. A change of rider will then take place in the ring, and the second rider will ride the second way of the ring. No communication is allowed during the rider change from inside or outside of the arena. The first rider will remain in the middle of the ring while the seconds rides. Awards will be given to both riders. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

84 Checker Board Stables Pro-Am Walk-Trot Equitation Classic: Open to Walk-Trot riders of any age and Professionals age 18 & over in all disciplines. No person, EXCEPT THE PROFESSIONALS, entering any class requiring a canter will be eligible for this classic. This class will be judged on equitation. This is a two-rider class. The professional will ride the first way of the ring, while the amateur remains in the middle. A change of rider will then take place in the ring, and the amateur will ride the second way of the ring. Professionals may be asked to perform a simple test such as dropping the stirrups, western riders posting, English riders sitting, etc. in addition to normal Walk-Trot rail work. The professional will remain in the middle of the ring while the amateur rides. No communication is allowed at any point while in the ring. Awards will be given to both the professional and the amateur. One rider must be a professional and the other must be a Walk-Trot rider. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

85 Infinity Farm Pro-Am Open Equitation Classic: Open to all exhibitors in all disciplines, except Walk-Trot riders. Professionals must be age 18 & over. This is a two-rider class. The professional will ride the first way of the ring, while the amateur remains in the middle. A change of rider will then take place in the ring, and the amateur will ride the second way of the ring. The professional will remain in the middle of the ring while the amateur rides. Riders may be asked to perform a simple test such as dropping the stirrups, western riders posting, English riders sitting, etc. No communication is allowed at any point while in the ring. Awards will be given to both the professional and the amateur. One rider must be a professional and the other must be an amateur rider. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

86 NEW Cornerstone Farm Open Versatility Classic: Open to all exhibitors. This walk-trot-canter class will be run in five parts—Gymkhana, Western Pleasure, Crossrails, English Pleasure and Model Horse. All riders must wear an ASTM approved helmet with a harness when jumping. There will be a 3-minute break for tack changes between the Western/gymkhana portion and the English portion for tack changes and again between the English portion and the Model Horse portion. A maximum of three grooms per rider are to be ready at the gate and will be allowed into the ring when the three minutes begins. Exhibitors MUST be on the rail in proper attire for the English portion before the 3 minutes expire. Failure to do so will result in elimination. The same horse/rider combination must be used for all five parts of this class. This class will be limited to 20 horses. Exhibitors must be a member of Tri-State.

